Parish Mass Times As you know this is an area of parish life that I have been looking at for a long time in conjunction with the PPC. I have carried out two consultations and have a fairly clear idea of what people would like, all things being equal. Whilst I know that there are very strong arguments for reducing to two Masses I would prefer not to go down that road for the time being. I do need, however, to make the load as easy as possible for myself. Mass times are one of the few things in parish life that I have any control over. Most of my work is a response to what other people are seeking.

Sunday Masses I have, therefore, decided that with effect from Sat/Sun 29th/30th May, our Mass times will be as follows:

Saturday Vigil at 6.00pm

Sunday Day at 11 am

Sunday Night at 5pm.

Daily Mass - With immediate effect, on a Monday the parish Mass will be in the evening, usually at 7pm but sometimes earlier, depending on other commitments. Until I am fitter, the Wednesday Mass will be at 9.30am.
